Seafood and cocktails for Bond villains, a nightclub under a carpark, Mexican food at a family table, a cave graffitied by Jim Morrison, modernist villas on the lake, a secret speakeasy in Santa Monica... Get lost in the city that never stands still

Vivid Clarity

A photo showcase by George Byrne

Capturing that particular way the sun hits Los Angeles, George Byrne's photographs spin LA's disposable architecture and redundant landscapes into neat geometry, thoughtful shadows and poetic stillness. From 2013, his Instagram @george_byrne has become a popular extension of his art practice. Following, a selection from Byrne's 2016 exhibition "Local Divisions"
